

*South Salem
Presbyterian Church Est. 1752*

*November 30, 2025 Year C
First Sunday of Advent*

This service is being live streamed and recorded. If you prefer not to be on camera, you may sit in the balcony (with the exception of communion). Thank you.

PRELUDE

The Prelude is a sacred curtain dropped between the World and the Sanctuary. We cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon from the profane to the Holy.

WELCOME

OPENING WORDS

*THE PEACE

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 122

*HYMN 88

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

SERMON NOTES:

There is a world out there. A world that embraces darkness rather than light. A world filled with false gods. A world seeking for some form of comfort and security in the darkness. A world in which lies are called truth, and truth is called fantasy or myth. The real fantasy, though, is that everything is ok, that if we purchase a few more things, or drink more, or take more drugs, or other forms of self-gratification, then we will be happy. This is the heart of darkness.
